BCL/MJUR PROFILE

Class of 2014/15

"Oxford is renowned for the size, strength, and diversity of its community of legal scholars who are drawn from around the world. I am delighted to welcome our new class of BCL and MJur students to this community. The students also come from a diverse range of backgrounds; they are united by their previous academic achievements and shared enthusiasm for the study of law."

Mindy Chen-Wishart,
Director of Graduate Studies
(Taught Courses)

The Oxford Bachelor of Civil Law (BCL) degree has been a pivotal feature of Oxford's law provision since the sixteenth century. This rich history has helped to maintain its status as the most highly regarded taught masters-level qualification in the common law world. Since 1991, the Magister Juris (MJur) degree has established a similar outstanding reputation for students from non-common law backgrounds.

Our students benefit from Oxford's rigorous tutorial system which makes these degree courses so challenging. This environment demands exceptional academic motivation, focused analytical ability, and the capacity for sustained work. Students from a wide range of jurisdictions and backgrounds refine their wealth of experience, knowledge and understanding through direct and intensive engagement with some of the best teachers and researchers in the world across a wide range of legal subjects.

Oxford University's Faculty of Law is one of the most prestigious in the world. It was ranked second in the world in the 2014 QS World University Rankings for law and was ranked first in the UK.
